All right. As promised, I'm taking it slow, so probably just one episode a day for now. After the bloodbath that was #Transformers the movie, we continue in the Post-Timeskip era (feels odd saying that) with Season 3 Episode 1: Five Faces of Darkness, Part 1 (of 5).

The opening credits have a faster beat to them, and prominently feature Cybertron's new moon (Unicron's head)... and an army of Blitzwings?

There's a lot of emphasis on SPACE in this #transformers OP.

Shit. We are starting RIGHT at the climax of the movie. They say the Autobots have won the great war. Does that mean all the Decepticons left Cybertron in the course of #Transformers the Movie?

Paisley Peinforte has moved to Mastodon x... @Rule34Rocks

It certainly looks so. In a reversal from the pre-timeskip status quo, the Decepticons are now the ones low on Energon and forced to move home to another world - in this case, Planet Char. #Transformers

They are literally fighting for scraps. How far they have fallen. #Transformers

Without the energy to fully transform or even stay combined, this is truly the Decepticons' nadir. #Transformers

FEAR NOT FOR SWOLE O-FACE CYCLONUS HAS ARRIVED #Transformers

There's a brief moment when Astrotrain longs for the rule of Megatron and Cyclonus insists "Galvatron!" even though they're "The same guy" as Astrotrain retorts.

Same guy, but different toy, kids! Remember to ask your parents for Galvatron today! #transformers

Cut to some bots who are supposed to be happy, but their faces look terrified. And Alejandro Jodorowsky has joined the chat. #Transformers

Oh, it's some kind of Space Olympics, and the Autobots are there.

Rodimus balks at oratory. I can already see he's going to be on some sort of maturation arc.

Surprisingly, a lot of pre-timeskip bots are here, some with speaking roles. I've thought the new #transformers would have gotten all the limelight.

We have stakes - the transformation cog for Autobot city is broken and needs to be replaced. It's the first time the city is explicitly referred to as Metroplex, outside of Scramble City, which non-Japanese audiences would not have seen. #Transformers

A terrorist attack hits the Space Olympics. And we finally find out who Daniel's mum is!

I suppose she forgave his other teenage indiscretions. #Transformers

I heard Unicron moan. I did not need that mental image. #Transformers

And it looks like the Decepticons are searching for Galvatron, who looks like he just finished filming Terminator 2.

Cut to "The Socialist, Democratic, Federated Republic of CarBombya." Jesus Christ. #Transformers

"How are we going to find the Decepticons?" Blaster asks as TWO JETS WITH DECEPTICON INSIGNIA ROLL INTO VIEW. #Transformers

Sad Astrotrain is sad. And Cyclonus went from Stentorian Orator to Snake-Oil Salesman in no time at all, passing the hat around for Energon to support his "Let's Dig Galvatron Out of A Lava Pit" fund. #Transformers

And we end episode 1 of the post-timeskip G1 Era with Rodimus and Grimlock under Decepticon attack on Char. It looks like it wasn't the Decepticons who attacked the Space Olympics! But then... who? The mystery deepens when I return with Part 2, soon! #Transformers
