Rodimus shorts himself out so he can go back into the Matrix to find Triniterr, find out more about the Quintessons. #Transformers 🤖 can be so ridiculously fragile at times. If other programmes endow characters with plot armour, Transformers gives them plot_fragility_

So it looks like this whole plot is the Quintessons wanting to take back Cybertron from the #Transformers 🤖 - and to this end they've convinced Galvatron there's a Decepticon Matrix of leadership in it for him. They're planning a two-prong assault on Earth and Cybertron.
